

Has the FCC considered the additional costs to minority/foreign language stations? KBIF is primarily an Asian station with the number one language being HMONG. Would we also be expected to cover the cost of translating these tapes? At $50 per hour for translation, we would be looking at an additional cost of $438,000 per year.